

- International
- Peer-Reviewed
- IKS based Academic Magazine

- Tri-Lingual
- Bi-Monthly
- Digital

CALL FOR ARTICLES

Contribute to the Legacy of Indian Knowledge.

ASMITAA is a platform that brings Indian Knowledge Systems closer to everyday life through simple and clear expression.

A Vidushi is a woman who seeks, lives and shares knowledge—through learning, work or daily life—while carrying forward Indian values and knowledge traditions.

Both women and men are equally encouraged to contribute.

Who Can Write for ASMITAA?

ASMITAA welcomes original articles from:

- Students
- Vidushis, Homemakers
- Scholars and Academicians
- Researchers
- Teachers and educators
- IKS Practitioners
- Writers and Independent Learners

We welcome articles that seek not merely to explain texts, but to connect knowledge with lived experience.

Writing Style & Approach

ASMITAA values depth with simplicity, not complexity for its own sake.

Articles should :

- Be original and unpublished
- Use simple, clear & reader-friendly language
- Remain grounded in authentic & original sources.
- Proper referencing of sources is expected
- Avoid excessive technical language.
- Reflect relevance to present-day life
- Present IKS wisdom in a meaningful and accessible way that connects with general readers.

For Article Submission Form, visit: www.asmitaa.co.in

Submission Guidelines for Authors

Please read the Article submission guidelines carefully:

- Language: Sanskrit / Hindi / English
- Word Limit : 800 words
- Font: Unicode Devanagari (12/14pt) for Hindi/Sanskrit, Times New Roman (12pt) for English
- File Format: only MS Word File. (no PDFs will be accepted)
- Author introduction in separate word file (60–70 words)
- Recent passport-size photograph

Clarity of expression and conceptual accuracy are essential in all languages.

- Review process

All articles published in ASMITAA undergo a structured editorial and peer review process

